

Live a Little (That's Right)

Verse

Pacific breezes carry sounds of laughter and of tears
Of peoples' grand adventures, of happiness and fears
Of people taking risks, of people losing all
Of people getting up again every time they fall ... that's right

Some paddle out at dawn , some paddle out at night
Some won't paddle out at all for fear a shark may bite
Some live near the beach, some live near the bay
Some live every moment of every single day ... that's right

Let me take your hand, my friend
And join you on your way
A journey of a thousand steps
Begins from here this day

Break out from your comfort zone
Escape the prison you call home
Awaken dreams of things postponed ... Of things postponed

Live a little, love a little, do it all the time
Eat a little, smoke a little, little's not a crime
Have a little, share a little, a little in return
Buy a little, sell a little, let a little burn ... that's right!
That's right! That's right That's right

Verse

You have a perfect home, a perfect job, a perfect dog
Or maybe just the opposite, a shit hole in a bog
Or maybe in the middle where the days are all the same
Or maybe you just wonder if it's you that is to blame ... that's right
